

About the Rabbi

Rabbi Larry Moldo was born and raised on the Minneapolis side of the Twin Cities in Minnesota. After graduating from the University of Minnesota, he worked in Peoria (Illinois), Omaha (Nebraska), Kansas City (Kansas), Elmwood Park (New Jersey) and Buffalo (New York) before accepting the position in Modesto.

Prior to Ordination at the Academy for Jewish Religion in New York City, Rabbi Larry had written materials on Torah notes, liturgy and management. As part of the Ordination process, he wrote a senior thesis Unsuccessful Pregnancies and Neonatal Deaths: Pastoral Care for the Rabbinate and Cantorate.

An avid reader, he is especially fond of Science Fiction & Fantasy, and currently serves on the Stanislaus Library Foundation Board.
